Evaluations

You will be evaluated based upon the responses you provide on the job specific questionnaire that is required as part of the application process for this position. You will be rated based on your responses and assigned a score ranging from 70 to 100 points. Candidates will be referred for selection in accordance with the terms of the agency merit promotion plan.

All the information you provide may be verified by a review of the work experience and/or education as shown on your application forms, by checking references and through other means, such as the interview process. This verification could occur at any stage of the application process. Any exaggeration of your experience, false statements, or attempts to conceal information may be grounds for rating you ineligible, not hiring you, or for firing you after you begin work.

How to Apply

How To Apply:

You must complete the online occupational questionnaire and submit a resume to receive consideration for this vacancy announcement. Please be sure to respond to all questions in the online questionnaire. Errors or omissions may affect your rating or result in your being rated ineligible.

There are 2 methods available to complete the online occupational questionnaire and submit your resume.

1) You can build an account and create a resume through USAJOBS after which you will be directed to complete the occupational questionnaire. This method is recommended for those who may be interested in applying for multiple vacancy announcements and those who need assistance in preparing a resume.

2) You can apply directly to this announcement, complete the occupational questionnaire, and upload your resume. This method is recommended for those who already have a resume available in a personal word processing file.

Method 1 – Using the USAJOBS resume builder and USAJOBS user account: The USAJOBS Web site provides a Resume Builder feature that you may use to develop and submit a resume for this position. The completed resume can be attached to this vacancy announcement and submitted electronically. To do so, scroll down to the end of the vacancy announcement and click the  button at the bottom of this screen. Then follow the USAJOBS web site instructions. Next, if you have not created a user account, click on the "create your account now" button and follow the instructions. If you have created a user account, insert your user id/password and follow the instructions.

The system will then take you to the Online Questionnaire that you must also complete and submit. When you have completed the occupational questionnaire select the "Finish" button. At the next screen select the "Submit" button. If you want to "Save" an incomplete Occupational Questionnaire and return later, select the "Save" button at the top or bottom of each of the application pages and click the "Logout" button. To return later to complete an application/occupational questionnaire click here: <https://www.hr-services.org/usasonlineapp/usasonlineapp.aspx>

Follow the instructions that appear on the screen after you receive an acknowledgement that the occupational questionnaire is successfully submitted.

In addition to completing an online resume and online questionnaire, you may be required to submit additional required documents. (See required documents and document upload instructions below) If you do not have all the requested documents in electronic format you can upload part and fax the remaining documents that you do not have in electronic format. (See faxing document instructions below)

Method 2 – Completing an online occupational questionnaire and uploading a resume from your personal word processing file: This method will allow you to bypass the USAJOBS user log in and resume builder feature to go directly to the online occupational questionnaire and then upload your resume from your personal word processing file. Click this link to start a new occupational questionnaire.

<https://www.hr-services.org/usasonlineapp/usasonlineapp.aspx>

When you have completed the occupational questionnaire select the "Finish" button. At the next screen select the "Submit" button. If you want to "Save" an incomplete Occupational Questionnaire and return later, select the "Save" button at the top or bottom of each of the application pages and click the "Logout" button. To return later to complete an application/occupational questionnaire click here:

<https://www.hr-services.org/usasonlineapp/usasonlineapp.aspx>

In addition to completing an online questionnaire and submitting a resume, you may be required to submit additional required documents. (See required documents and document upload instructions below) If you do not have all the requested documents in electronic format you can upload part and fax the remaining documents that you do not have in electronic format. (See faxing document instructions below)

Required Documents:

In addition to completing an on-line questionnaire and submitting an on-line resume, the following supporting documents must be received by the closing date of this announcement.

Proof of Eligibility if applying for consideration under a priority selection program (e.g., CTAP/ICTAP) or a special appointing authority. Individuals who have special priority selection rights under the Agency Career Transition Assistance Program (CTAP) or the Interagency Career Transition Assistance Program (ICTAP) must be well qualified for the position to receive consideration for special priority selection. To be well-qualified and exercise selection priority for this vacancy, displaced Federal employees must be rated at 85 or above on the rating criteria for this position. For those instances where the best qualified lists include applicants with scores less than 85, the well-qualified score becomes the lowest score on the best qualified list. CTAP and ICTAP eligibles must submit one of the following as proof of eligibility for the special selection priority: a separation notice; a "Notice of Personnel Action" (SF-50) or equivalent that documents separation; an agency certification that you cannot be placed after injury compensation has been terminated; an OPM notification that your disability annuity has been terminated; OR a Military Department or National Guard Bureau notification that you are retired under 5 U.S.C. 8337(h) or 8456.

Proof of Eligibility if applying for consideration under the Office of Personnel Management Interchange Agreement. Individuals requesting consideration under the Office of Personnel Management Interchange Agreement must submit proof of eligibility such as a Notice of Personnel Action, a separation notice, or other appropriate documentation.

US 85

EEO Policy Statement

The United States Government does not discriminate in employment on the basis of race, color, religion, sex, national origin, political affiliation, sexual orientation, marital status, disability, age, membership in an employee organization, or other non-merit factor.

Reasonable Accommodation Policy Statement

Federal agencies must provide reasonable accommodation to applicants with disabilities where appropriate. Applicants requiring reasonable accommodation for any part of the application and hiring process should contact the hiring agency directly. Determinations on requests for reasonable accommodation will be made on a case-by-case basis.

Veterans Information

Veterans who served on active duty in the U.S. Armed Forces and were separated under honorable conditions may be eligible for veterans' preference. For service beginning after October 15, 1976, the veteran must have served the required length of time and have a Campaign Badge, Expeditionary Medal, a service-connected disability, or have served in the Gulf War between August 2, 1990, and January 2, 1992.

The Veterans Employment Opportunity Act (VEOA) gives veterans access to job vacancies that might otherwise be closed to them. The law allows eligible veterans to compete for vacancies advertised under agency's promotion procedures when the agency is seeking applications from outside of its own workforce.

To claim veterans' preference, veterans should be ready to provide a copy of their DD-214, Certificate of Release or Discharge from Active Duty, or other proof. Veterans with service connected disability and others claiming 10 point preference will need to submit Form SF-15, Application for 10-point Veterans' Preference.

For more specifics on all veterans employment issues such as Veterans preference or special appointing authorities see the VetGuide.
